

Elastomeric Bumper

These custom elastomeric bumpers are used for absorbing shock between two objects, protecting assembled machine components to minimize scratching or other damage to the bolted surfaces. This part has been printed in two different elastomeric materials available on the Origin® One. These elastomers are suitable for applications that require various elastomeric properties such as tear strength, targeted hardness, resiliency, and creep resistance.

---

Material

LOCTITE® 3D IND402,
P3™ Stretch™ IND475,
P3™ Stretch™ 80 NEW

---